IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

Civil Revision No. 4854 of 2005
Date of Decision: September 05, 2006

Sewa Singh .....Petitioner

versus

Gurneet Singh and others .....Respondents

Present:- Shri Rajneesh Gupta, Advocate, for the petitioner

Shri B.S. Giri, Advocate, for respondents No. 1 to 4 and 6

HEMANT GUPTA, J.

The plaintiff is in revision aggrieved against the order passed by the learned trial Court on 26.05.2005 whereby evidence of the plaintiff was closed for the reason that the plaintiff has failed to produce any evidence in spite of numerous opportunities granted to the plaintiff-petitioner.

Though I do not find that there is any justification for grant of indulgence by this Court but keeping in view the undertaking given by the petitioner that he shall produce his entire evidence on one date and shall also compensate the defendants for leading evidence.

In view of the above, the plaintiff-petitioner is granted one opportunity to produce his entire evidence subject to payment of Rs.3000/- as costs. If the petitioner fails to conclude his evidence and to pay the costs of 3000/- on the date fixed in the suit i.e. 24.09.2005, the evidence of the petitioner shall be deemed to be closed. In any eventuality, the petitioner shall not be granted any further opportunity to lead his evidence.

The revision petition stands disposed of accordingly.

A copy of the order be given Dasti on payment of usual charges.
